FIRST and SECOND SEMESTER

BAEN: 1.1: PROSE

They provide us with more than the immediate interest of narrative – of something happening – and more than the pleasures of imagination: they enlarge our understanding of ourselves and deepen our appreciation of life.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Literature allows a person to step back in time and learn about life on Earth from the ones who walked before us. We can gather a better understanding of culture and have a greater appreciation of them. We learn through the ways history is recorded, in the forms of manuscripts and through speech itself

BAEN: 1.2:GAZAL/NAZAM

The ghazal is a form of amatory poem. A ghazal is a poetic expression of both the pain and love and it expresses the feeling of human nature. Nazam is a major part of Urdu poetry; it's normally written in rhymed version. Nazam is significantly written by controlling one's thoughts and feelings, which are constructively discussed as well as developed and finally concluded according to the poetic laws. The title of the poem itself holds the central theme as the whole. Poetry is so important because it helps us understand and appreciate the world around us. Poetry's strength lies in its ability to shed a "sideways" light on the world, so the truth sneaks up on you. No question about it. Poetry teaches us how to live.

BAEN: 1.4: NOVEL

Novels provide knowledge, entertainment, encourage creativity and offer an escape for readers - enriching our lives in more ways than one. Literature is a timeless piece of entertainment. As the innovations of technological advancements have grown, the way we read has revolutionized and evolved. However, the essence of storytelling and the effect it has on our lives hasn't wavered.

Literature reflects human nature and a way we can learn and relate to others. By reading through a first-person perspective, we can fully immerse ourselves into a different mindset and figure out how others think and feel. This is important within today's society as we're becoming increasingly detached from human interaction through iPhones, Face Time, and social media. Literature is something that will never change in the way it makes you feel, regardless of whether that's on paper or as an eBook.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Prose style and length, as well as fictional or semi-fictional subject matter, are the most clearly defining characteristics of a novel. Unlike works of epic poetry, it tells its story using prose rather than verse; unlike short stories, it tells a lengthy narrative rather than a brief selection. Learning outcomes help faculty and students come to a common understanding about the purpose and goals of a course or academic program. By providing clear and comprehensive learning outcomes, faculty begin to provide a transparent pathway for student success.

- state what students are expected to know or be able to do upon completion of a specific course.
- be clearly stated and relate specifically to the topics, assignments, exams and other assessments in the course.
