Report On National Science Day

“Current Technology In Modern Era”

On the Occasion of National Science Day, on 28-03-2019, Science Association and IQAC actively conducted these type of national festivals will benefit and are for the betterment of students. On the National Science Day, we have invited Eminent Sr. Scientist Dr. Arun Kumar P from Food Packaging Technology Department, CSIR-Central Food Technological Research Institute (CFTRI) Mysore. He has delivered a lecture on Nanotechnology and its applications in day to day life and in the field of food packing.

There were two sessions one in the morning; Dr. Arun Kumar P delivered the lecture on History of Nanotechnology and its applications in medicinal science, and another session in the afternoon at 3.00 PM at conference Hall. The second session was “MEET THE SCIENTIST”, this session includes purely interaction of students with the scientist. Our UG and PG students were involved in the regarding the applications of science and also had a discussion on higher education in national and international universities/institutions. Later we concluded the function by felicitating our chief guest as a token of love and respect and also felicitated to Dr. Ashok Ullagaddi, who retired on the same day after serving 32 years in the Chemistry Department.

Our College principal, Chairman, HODs, Science Association Coordinator and the students participated in the function and made it grand success.

SCIENCE DAY CELEBRATION BY DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS

The science day celebration in the college begins with two lectures organized on 26th Feb 2019 by the dept., of Physics.

Dr. Basavaraj A Kagali. Former Professor & Chairman, Dept. of Physics Bangalore University Bengaluru, was the invited speaker.

In the inauguration ceremony students along with staff & invited speaker showered flowers on the photo of sir C V Raman .The inauguration of the function was done by watering the plant by the invited speaker ,Principal, Staff of Physics dept and the students on 26th Feb morning at 11.00 am, he delivered the first lecture on "Life and Achievement of sir C V Raman" his lecture was very informative he shows may slides released to Raman life he explained Raman effect elaborately and application of Raman effect. M.Sc., physics students took the lead in organizing and managing the event with the help of staff.

The second lecture was on the same day at 3.30 pm. Dr.Basavaraj A Kagali explained the different theories of universe with beautiful slides the step wise development of our knowledge about universe was neatly explained by the speaker. Students interacted with the speaker and enriched their knowledge

These two delivered lectures exposed our students to the present day knowledge of our universe and the hard work of C V Raman and orated interest in their about the subject
