English Day Celebration Report 2025

The Department of English, Vijayanagar College, celebrated English Day on 26 and 27 May 2025 with the aim of highlighting the significance of the English language and motivating students to strengthen their communication skills through a series of vibrant activities. The event sought to showcase the richness of English literature and inspire learners to express themselves with confidence.

The celebrations opened with a warm welcome by the students, followed by the symbolic act of watering a plant. An introductory note by the Head of the Department and presidential remarks from the Principal emphasized the role of language in shaping thought and culture. The session ended with a vote of thanks.

The two-day program featured a wide range of literary and co-curricular activities:

- Debate Competition (26 May 2025)

A debate on the topic "Do film adaptations ruin classical literature?" allowed participants to display their research, reasoning, and eloquence. Students argued passionately, while the judges, consisting of faculty and invited speakers, assessed them on clarity, delivery, rebuttal, and overall presentation.

- Literary Quiz (24 & 26 May 2025)

This quiz tested students' knowledge of literature, grammar, pedagogy, and general awareness. With over 150 participants from undergraduate and postgraduate programs, it turned out to be one of the most engaging activities of the celebration.

- Pick and Speak (26 May 2025)

Students enthusiastically spoke on a variety of topics, exhibiting confidence and fluency. The event provided them a platform to showcase their spontaneous speaking skills.

- Poetry Recitation (26 May 2025)

This competition encouraged appreciation of modern poetry while boosting verbal expression. With over 50 participants, the event highlighted creativity and the charm of poetic language.

- Poetry Writing

Students composed original poems on diverse themes, judged on creativity, language, style, and emotional depth. Faculty members appreciated the participants' imagination and their ability to convey feelings through words.

- Essay Writing

Participants presented well-organized essays reflecting thoughtful opinions, critical perspectives, and awareness of contemporary issues. Judges were impressed by the originality, coherence, and linguistic competence of the submissions.

- Sports Events (25 May 2025)

To add an element of recreation and teamwork, sports competitions such as Cricket, Carrom, and Chess were conducted. The cricket match, filled with thrilling moments, drew loud cheers from the spectators. The carrom contests tested precision and focus, while the chess tournament demonstrated patience, planning, and strategy.

- Valedictory Function

The celebration concluded with a grand valedictory program in the auditorium. A recap of all events was followed by the prize distribution ceremony, where winners were felicitated with certificates and awards. The Principal, in his address, congratulated participants and highlighted the importance of English as a universal language and extracurricular activities in developing personality. Teachers also shared words of encouragement.

Overall, the English Day celebration was both enriching and enjoyable, providing students with opportunities to enhance their creativity, critical thinking, and communication skills while fostering a spirit of teamwork and appreciation for the English language.

Literary activities were inaugurated by the principal in the presence of the IQAC coordinator, the head of the department, all staff and students
